So here's my question: When traveling, most hotels have a checkout time of around 11 AM, and then you can't check in to your next hotel until about 3:00. This means that every time we switch hotels, we don't have a place for the kids to take their nap. They aren't very good at falling asleep on trains, either. Do you have any miracle advice for us?

I would love to hear what Caleb Nestley has to say about this. Thanks in advance!

Debra Willis
